IMPLEMENTATION OF THE DOMESTIC TAXES TAXPAYER COMPLIANCE RISK MANAGEMENT STRATEGY AND COMPLIANCE IMPROVEMENT PLAN FOR FY 2026/27

September 7, 2026 - 9:46 am, 2 weeks ago

Uganda Revenue Authority (URA) informs the public that it has commenced implementation of the Taxpayer Compliance Risk Management Strategy designed to promote voluntary tax compliance, address emerging compliance risks and support a fair, transparent and efficient tax administration system.

The Strategy adopts a data-driven and risk-based approach to promote voluntary compliance, address emerging compliance risks and ensure fair, transparent and efficient tax administration. URA will use taxpayer information, transactions, sector trends and other lawful data to identify compliance gaps and determine appropriate interventions.

Compliance Improvement Plan (CIP) for FY 2026/27. The CIP translates identified compliance risks into targeted interventions aimed at improving compliance across the taxpayer population. The CIP will focus on improving registration, filing, declaration, payment and reporting compliance, including:

1. Formalisation and registration of taxable businesses and activities;
2. Timely and accurate filing and declaration of taxes;
3. Accurate reporting of sales, income and taxable transactions;
4. Tax payment and management of outstanding obligations;
5. Compliance with Electronic Fiscal Receipting and Invoicing Solution (EFRIS), including registration of applicable non-VAT taxpayers in the 12 gazetted sectors;
6. Compliance with Digital Tax Stamps (DTS) requirements;
7. Addressing tax evasion, avoidance, abuse and systemic exploitation;
8. Sector-specific compliance interventions; and
9. Targeted taxpayer education and support.

WHAT TAXPAYERS SHOULD DO

Taxpayers are encouraged to:

1. Ensure proper registration and promptly update taxpayer information;
2. File complete and accurate returns on time;
3. Declare all taxable income, sales and transactions;
4. Issue and maintain appropriate fiscal documents;
5. Comply with EFRIS and DTS requirements, where applicable;
6. Pay taxes within the prescribed time;
7. Maintain proper books and supporting records; and
8. Respond promptly to URA compliance communications and seek clarification where necessary.

KEY COMPLIANCE RISKS

Under the CIP, URA will pay particular attention to the following:

Risk Area	Risk Area

3. Stock variances between trading accounts and balance sheets	4. Overclaimed excise duty on converted excisable goods
5. ASYCUDA exports differing from VAT exports	6. Overstated cost of sales
7. Inconsistent retained earnings brought forward	8. Employers not registered for PAYE
9. Overstated trade payables	10. Expenses claimed on assets not on the balance sheet
11. ASYCUDA exports differing from income tax sales	12. Misrepresented stock levels versus declared sales
13. High manufacturer input-output ratios	14. Under-declared PAYE by secondary employers
15. Mispricing of related-party goods transactions	16. Undeclared WHT on international/foreign transactions
17. VAT taxable value differing from LED-derived excise-inclusive value	18. Undeclared WHT on professional and management fees
19. Non-Issuance of EFRIS receipts and EFRIS usage	20. Mismatch between DTS-stamped quantities and declared sales/production quantities
21. Unclassified expenses lumped up under Other expenses in the Income Tax Return	22. Excessive related-party payments

Taxpayers are encouraged to review their records, systems and internal controls to ensure complete and accurate declarations.
